To Whom It May Concern:

I am writing to share with you my support and recommendation for Ron Putnam with Slavic Christian Ministries (SCM). I have known Ron for nearly 9 year, starting when he became Director of Discipleship at Faith EPC. From our interaction in a young adult Sunday school to watching our kids while my wife and I enjoy a date night, to serving on the board of SCM, Ron is a consistent, dedicated, fervent follower of Christ. I have observed an attitude of surrender and service to whatever the Lord calls him to.

The current ministries of SCM are growing beyond my comprehension. The theology teaching that Ron has written is being distributed and taught at over 80 universities throughout Ukraine. The materials include the book and a study guide and it is now in three languages, four countries, and more on the way.

I am privileged to be used by God in the personal financial support of this ministry. The opportunities to impact people for eternity abound and I hope that you are open to the blessings of God that follow support of this ministry.
